

LIMITED POWER OF ATTORNEY

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, that Verizon Communications Inc., on behalf of itself as well as its subsidiaries ("Verizon"), hereby appoints The Locator Service Group Ltd., having its principal business address at 280 SUMMER STREET, SUITE 701, Boston, MA 02210 (Finder"), its true and lawful attorney-in-fact to seek recovery of the lost or unclaimed property in the amount of $3,860.67 (the "Unclaimed Property"), held by United States Bankruptcy Court Western District of Pennsylvania and reported by such government entity to have been lost or unclaimed by Bell Atlantic Mobile, check dated .

Subject to the limitations in the next following sentence, Verizon further grants Finder authority to do whatever is necessary and proper in seeking recovery of the Unclaimed Property as fully as Verizon might or could do if personally present, hereby confirming all that Finder shall so lawfully do or cause to be done. Nevertheless, Finder shall have no authority to incur any financial obligation or to make any expenditure on Verizon's behalf, nor shall Finder have any authority to convert or deposit any Unclaimed Property or endorse any check, note or other instrument on Verizon's behalf or take any action which shall be prohibited under the Asset Recovery Agreement dated 2/25/02 pertaining to the Unclaimed Property (the "Asset Recovery Agreement").

This Limited Power of Attorney shall be deemed to be a part of the Asset Recovery Agreement and, together with the Asset Recovery Agreement, shall constitute the sole and entire agreement between Verizon and Finder with respect to the recovery of the Unclaimed Property. This Limited Power of Attorney, and Finder's authority hereunder, shall terminate automatically and become null and void under the circumstances described in the Asset Recovery Agreement.

Signed this 10th day of May, 2012.

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on Line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the Part I instructions on page 3. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN on page 3.

Note. If the account is in more than one name, see the chart on page 4 for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me), and
- I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and
- I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below).

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the Certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions on page 4.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

- Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
- Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
- Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income.

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.

The person who gives Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States is in the following cases:

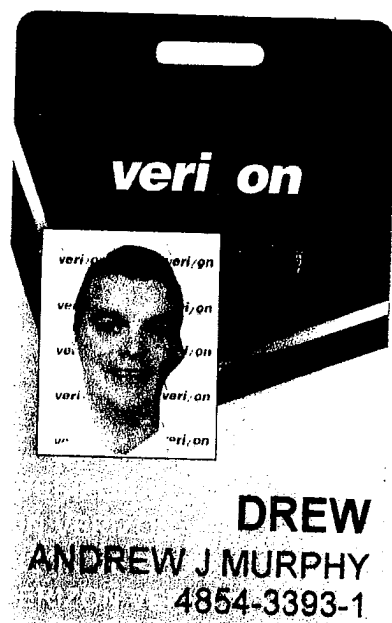

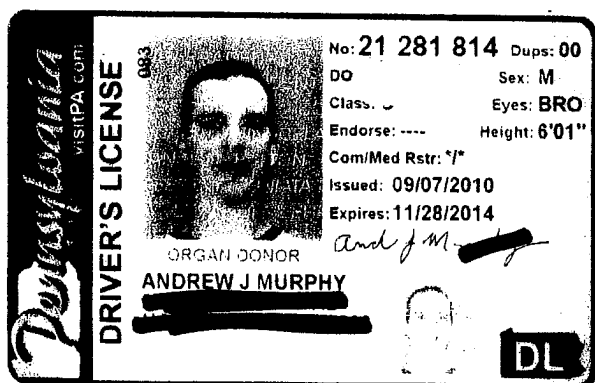

- The U.S. owner of a disregarded entity and not the entity,
